5. [] LIAISON Received a call from Elliot Maxwell, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding Senator Walter D. Huddleston's (D., Ky.) letter to the Director asking for more information on the National Security Act Section 102(c) termination authority. I had earlier discussed with Maxwell the possibility of reducing this request for background data, and Maxwell informed me that he still hoped to have 15 years' statistics, but would settle for ten or seven if 15 years was too large a research job.

6. [] LIAISON Received a call from Chip Andre, in the office of Senator Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.). Andre said the Senator had become aware of allegations that ten U.S. Navy personnel were imprisoned in the Soviet Union for espionage. Andre gave me a list of the names. I referred Andre to the Defense Department and called Colonel Steve Harrick, DOD Legislative office, about this. Harrick confirmed that DOD should handle it and said he would call Andre.

7. [] THIRD AGENCY Called Clifton Fowler, GAO, to advise him that, due to the uncertainty of our current position on access to any additional [] documents, we saw little purpose in his meeting with Mr. Shackley, ADDO, on 13 October, as had been scheduled. I suggested instead that he should get together with [] O/SA/DO/O, and myself on 11 October for a discussion of his requirements. Mr. Fowler thanked me for the offer and agreed to the meeting.

8. [] THIRD AGENCY Paul Daly, FBI, telephoned to advise me that CIA would not receive a letter from the Attorney General with regard to our granting access to [] documents, a matter Mr. Daly had agreed to explore in our behalf. Mr. Daly provided the rationale for Justice's position in this matter and I thanked him for his efforts in our behalf. (See note to Messrs. Lyle Miller and George Cary.)

9. [] LIAISON I called Beverley Lumpkin, Administrative Officer, House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations, to confirm with her the identities of those staffers who had received CIA compartmented briefings. Ms. Lumpkin's information checked with our file information and she agreed to have those staffers who have been briefed on compartmented material sign the Central Intelligence Agency Communications Intelligence Indoctrination form.
